Frogfile cleans up with Seventh Generation

Frogfile offers lowest pricing on full line kitchen and bathroom products for business customers

Vancouver, BC August 2, 2006. Frogfile Office Essentials today announced that it has introduced a full line of office kitchen and bathroom products for institutional customers at the lowest price.

“Frogfile is now purchasing directly from our supplier, Seventh Generation, and passing the savings on to our customers,” reports Gil Yaron, Frogfile’s CEO. “We can now offer our institutional customers a much wider range of Seventh Generation cleaning products at lower than wholesale pricing.”

Seventh Generation products are the most environmentally-sensitive cleaning products on the market. They include bathroom tissue, paper towel, and facial tissues all made from post-consumer recycled fibre and chlorine-free. There is also a complete line of cleaning products for office kitchen and bathroom that are biodegradable, non-toxic, and hypoallergenic.

Frogfile also offers attractive pricing on volume purchases for our larger institutional clients.
